MEMORANDUM FOR MR. DULLES:

Mr. Henry Houston of Troy, New York appeared at the North Building earlier in the day and requested an appointment with you. [redacted] of the Security Office talked to Mr. Houston who stated that he did not know you but that he had been a classmate of your son's at Princeton.

STAT

Mr. Houston stated that he is now a graduate student at Cornell; that he is in Washington for 2 days and that while here he is attempting to line up some speakers for next April 1956 for a Special Management Conference which is to be held at Cornell University. It is contemplated that representatives of private industry, Government and the professions will be asked to speak at various sessions and he would like to ascertain whether or not you might be available for an address.

Do you wish to see Mr. Houston or shall I telephone him and indicate that I think it doubtful you will be able to accept this invitation but suggest that he write and ask if you will be willing to attend this Conference?

STAT

Called Houston + suggested that he send a written invitation.
